Heaviest Raids Of War Smash At N Viet Nam

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Waves of American bombers pounded North Viet Nam Monday in the biggest aerial assault of the war, the U.S. command announced today.

It was the second day in a row that U.S. planes mounted record raids, and pilots claimed inflicting damage on four surface-to-air missile sites and blowing up two Soviet-made missiles.

American airmen flew 170 missions in all. This was one mission below the record set on Sunday but a U.S. military spokesman said the number of sorties (individual strikes) exceeded Sunday's by one.

The heavy assault involved between 400 and 500 individual strikes.

Ground action continued to lag. U.S. military headquarters reported no significant action. South Vietnamese headquarters reported two brisk engagements but none of large scale.

The air blows against the North Monday cost the American raiders one plane, a U.S. spokesman said. An Air Force F105 Thunderchief was shot down 45 miles northwest of Vinh and the pilot is missing.

During the forays, Air Force pilots hit at a missile site 30 miles northwest of Dong Hoi.

Pilots reported hitting two missiles. One, they said, went off into the air and exploded with a large orange fireball. The other was seen zigzagging erratically across the ground.

On the same site, U.S. pilots reported destroying two other missiles last Saturday.

Johnson Agrees To Mine Search Tax Incentives

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Vice President Hubert Humphrey told the American Mining Congress convention Monday that the Administration would like to see increasing demands for minerals met "at decreasing costs."

He was asked at a news conference what the administration would do if major domestic producers follow the lead of two smaller ones and increase the price of copper.

"I don't know," he replied. "Our general position is pretty well known. We are deeply concerned about inflationary pressures, and the industry has been very cooperative."

The major producers have not yet increased prices and the expressed feeling among industry leaders at the convention was mixed.

Humphrey told the mining convention, "No doubt many of you have questioned our efforts to hold the line in prices. But I am confident that you recognize the importance of these efforts in restraining price costs."

Humphrey said the President had decided to sign the Ullman-Green mineral exploration tax deduction bill.

The measure is designed to encourage exploration and development of new mineral discoveries.

The Vice President called it a needed tax incentive measure to stimulate mineral exploration and development.

It permits early tax writeoffs for depreciation of equipment with the provision that the deferred, normal tax payments be made at a later date if the new finds prove profitable.

Sen. Frank Church informed the Mining Congress that President Johnson signed the bill this afternoon, a measure which the Democratic Senator from Idaho said he hoped would "be a substantial breakthrough for many segments of the industry."

Doctors Rejoin Boy's Severed Leg; Battle For Recovery Starts

BOSTON (AP) — Doctors at Boston City Hospital have re-joined the severed left leg of an 18-year-old boy and are watching to see if the heroic effort will succeed.

To date, no attempt to rejoin a severed leg is known to have fully succeeded. It is believed that the first successful reattachment of a human limb occurred in 1882 at Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston when surgeons rejoined the right arm of 12-year-old Everett (Red) Knowles.

The battle to save the leg of Jan Dangora began Sept. 1 when his left leg was cut off eight inches below the knee in a motorcycle-automobile collision. Only a small portion of skin connected the two parts of Jan's leg.

It's still too early to know if the replant will work—and that means not only healing but restoration of function and feel to some useful degree.

It was learned, however, that blood circulation has been fully restored. His condition remains delicate and the fight for his recovery can be said to be only beginning, with the risk of secondary complications not yet out of the picture.

Details of the surgery and a progress report are expected to be presented later this week.

The complex surgery requires a nearly perfect application of known traumatic surgical techniques and refined blood vessel, bone and muscle rejoining as well as delicate attention to nerves.

Stress Safety In Buick Show

DETROIT (AP) — Buick division of General Motors laid heavy stress on safety items, including improved braking systems, in its 1967 line which was shown to the press today.

Robert L. Kessler, Buick general manager and vice president of General Motors, said the "brake systems were more closely tailored to the weight and power of the car, with front disc brakes offered as an option on most models."

He added, "In addition to the full complement of GM product improvements, we have provided a number of advances of our own, particularly in the area of brakes."

Kessler said Buick's main efforts in 1967 exterior styling were directed to making each series of Buick cars more readily identifiable.

"In other words, the Skylarks and the Le Sabres, Wildcats and Electras have been given their own distinguished features," he said.

The new Buick line, which devoted considerable attention to sportiness, was shown at a preview at Windsor Raceway in adjacent Windsor, Ont.

Rhodesia Issue Moves Toward A Compromise

LONDON (AP) — An Australian demand for a discussion of the Viet Nam war and other world issues forced the 22-nation Commonwealth Conference today to interrupt talks on Rhodesia.

The move by Prime Minister Harold Holt angered Foreign Minister Simon Kapwepwe of Zambia, who stalked out of the conference room and told newsmen outside "I am disgusted."

Delegates reported Holt arose during a secret session on Rhodesia to protest that after eight days the conference still had not come around to examining major world problems of the gravest importance to some member countries.

The outspoken Australian, whose country has troops fighting the Communists in Viet Nam, cited the crisis in Southeast Asia as one of the big issues which required urgent attention.

Prime Ministers Keith Holyoake of New Zealand and Lee Kuan Yew of Singapore supported Holt's intervention.

The upshot was that the conference moved to world affairs. The report came amid signs that the 22-nation Commonwealth conference was nearing a compromise agreement on a Rhodesia policy, particularly on the African member nations' demand that Britain withhold independence from the breakaway colony until black majority rule is established there.

Harlem School Fuss Jails 12

NEW YORK (AP) — A noisy demonstration outside a Harlem junior high school as the school year opened has resulted in the arrest of 12 young members of the Black Panthers, a militant Negro nationalist group.

It was the only such incident in the city Monday as more than a million pupils trooped back to classrooms.

Pickets in the group carried signs reading, "Be Strong Young Brother, the Panthers are Coming" and, "The Black Community Must Control the Neighborhood Schools."

They demanded that certain supervisory personnel be fired or transferred and that Negro history be included in the curriculum.

Bold Bandits Grab Freezer

Escanaba Police were looking for a pair of bold daylight bandits today.

Clarence Shiner reported to police that a deep freezer valued at about $50 and used to store ice cubes was stolen from Smith's Standard Service, 2300 Ludington St.

A witness said two men drove up in a pickup truck about 5:10 p.m. Monday, loaded the freezer on the back and drove off. Neither the truck, freezer or men have been seen since.

Gemini 11 Wings Way Toward New Records

Insurance Bill Victim Of New Economy Policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson has vetoed a $90-million increase in government employee insurance benefits, declaring it is inflationary and inconsistent with his call for restraint in federal spending.

Johnson acted Monday night after the House Ways and Means Committee completed its first day of hearings on a key portion of the President's anti-inflation package: suspension of the 7 per cent investment tax credit and the tax-advantaged accelerated depreciation allowance.

The veto came as Republican committee members prepared to challenge administration budget-cutting claims.

Led by Rep. Thomas B. Curtis, R-Mo., the GOP members planned to question Budget Director Charles L. Schultz when hearings resume today.

Schultz said Monday the administration already is enforcing a "first slice" budget cut of about $1.5 billion.

Schultz, Secretary of the Treasury Henry H. Fowler and Secretary of Commerce John T. Connor presented the President's proposals to the committee in the opening hearing.

Johnson announced his veto of the insurance bill at a hastily called news conference in his office saying, "At a time when we are making every effort to reduce low-priority federal spending in other areas, this bill cannot be justified."

"Many members of Congress share my belief that our anti-inflationary efforts must include restraint on spending," he added. "The measure I have vetoed today is totally inconsistent with our common goal."

Detroit Printers Return To Work

DETROIT (AP) — The morning Detroit Free Press printed all Tuesday editions without interruption overnight following suspension of publication Sunday in what management termed a wildcat work stoppage.

"A wildcat work stoppage by union printers forced cancellation Sunday night of all Monday editions..." the newspaper said in a front page story.

The newspaper said the printers, members of the Detroit Typographical Union No. 18, stopped work Sunday night in protest of the discharge of two employees.

When the union declined to submit the issue "through normal grievance procedures, management of the Free Press was forced to suspend publication," the paper said.

The newspaper said printers returned to work Monday under orders from Local 18 officials, "assuring settlement of the dispute through normal channels."

Space Walking Takes Gordon Outside Today

BULLETIN
CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Astronaut Richard F. Gordon Jr. cut short his space walk and got back inside Gemini 11 today "because he got so hot and sweaty he couldn't see." Gordon had been outside Gemini 11 about 35 minutes.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Astronaut Richard F. Gordon Jr. tied to a 30-foot lifeline, ventured outside the Gemini 11 spacecraft today to walk in the eerie void of outer space, which only four other men have braved before.

Gordon slipped into the weird ocean of space as Gemini 11, with command pilot Charles Conrad Jr. at the controls, zipped at 17,500 miles an hour over Southern California at 9:44 a.m. (EST) in the mission's 15th orbit.

"It is a beautiful day," the crew reported.

Gordon was to remain outside some 115 minutes—two periods of daylight and one of darkness—and return to the safety of his spaceship over the south Atlantic after the start of the 17th orbit.

After opening the hatch, Gordon stood in his seat.

While preparing for the dramatic experience of easing his entire body into space as a human satellite, Gordon worked at a variety of tasks.

These included raising a handrail near the rear of his capsule, retrieving an experimental package attached to the side of Gemini 11, mounting a motion-picture camera in a bracket behind Gordon's hatch and attaching a still-photo camera to his chest.

"Dick Gordon reports the spacecraft looks 'clean,'" Mission Control said.

Thruster Troubles

The astronauts spent several hours unpacking and hooking up all the gear for the walk, including a 30-foot lifeline to feed Gordon oxygen from the cabin supply system, and a chest pack with an emergency supply of the life-giving gas.

They finished the preparedness half an hour early and Conrad told the ground:

"We're way ahead of schedule. We're going to power down for a little rest."

Conrad said the No. 8 thruster—the same one which locked open and sent Gemini 8 into a mission-scrubbing spin—appeared to have "pooped out." He said when he tried to use it to yaw left the spacecraft responded with a right roll.

Flight control said the balky thruster would be tested on a pass over Carnarvon, Australia, to determine if the problem was electrical or mechanical—perhaps a stuck valve.

Minor Problems

There was no apparent concern for the mission. Controllers said astronauts L. Gordon Cooper Jr. and Conrad lost two thrusters and partial use of a third during the Gemini 5 flight. They specifically pointed out that the problem was the opposite of that which occurred during Gemini 8, when the thruster stuck open and started the ship spinning, forcing an early splashdown in the Pacific.

This followed two minor problems still with Gemini 11. Pilot Richard F. Gordon Jr. was given permission earlier to wipe a dirty windshield during his first of two scheduled space walks.

The dirty windshield—fogged slightly during the launch ascent—was one of two minor problems facing the record-setting astronauts as they prepared for Gordon's lengthy spacewalk.

He is to wipe the windshield during the spacewalk.

The other problem was the failure of instruments to show that the Agena target satellite received commands from the spacecraft. It is docked with.

Up At 1:55 A.M.

Neither, apparently, was serious. "We don't see any real problem that's going to hurt either your tethering or the other portions of the mission right now," flight control told the crew.

Technicians theorized that the cabin windows—one on each side—were the cause of the problem.

Vorster Chosen Prime Minister In South Africa

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (AP) — Justice Minister Balthazar Vorster was chosen today to become South Africa's seventh prime minister, succeeding Hendrik Verwoerd, who was assassinated a week ago.

Vorster was elected unanimously as national leader of the ruling Nationalist party at a full meeting of the party caucus in Cape Town's Parliament building, only a short distance away from the chamber in which Verwoerd was stabbed to death.

The party's unanimous choice, obviating a vote between contending candidates, was seen as indication of their resolve to choose a strongman leader, resolute in pursuing its apartheid (race segregation) policies without deviating from Verwoerd's race line.

Vorster swept to power without opposition when his only real contender for the nation's top post, Transport Minister Ben Schoeman, withdrew.

Schoeman told the meeting that after serious consideration he had decided not to accept nomination as party leader.

As the only other candidate, Vorster was unanimously elected.

He holds the portfolios of justice, police and prisons, and as the nation's top policeman has sharply curtailed activities of about 500 left-wing and liberal critics under the suppression of communism laws.

Vorster was interned for nearly two years during World War II for pro-German sympathies and is often pictured in newspaper cartoons wearing Nazi-style jackboots.

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market continued its strong advance in active trading early today.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up 7.23 points at 797.82 at 10:30 a.m.

The blue chips joined the glamour stocks in the advance.

Monday the market scored its best gain in more than 14 months.

Wall Street analysts said various Washington proposals and statements regarding the nation's tight money squeeze had cleared the air around the securities market. The analysts said some investors apparently felt market maladjustments were being repaired.

Glamour stocks—airlines, aerospace, office equipment, photography, and electronics—led the advance Monday.

Polaroid, the day's most active stock, was up $8.75 a share to $146.62.

Key stocks in other groups—motors, steels, chemicals, utilities, rails, and electrical equipment—also posted gains. These ran to about $1 and $2 but Eastman Kodak, a blue chip, leaped $6.25 to $119.

General Motors jumped $2.12 to $74.12 on GM's prediction of 1967 sales of nine million cars.

ed, thus preserving a facade of party unity and strength.

Vorster will now be called on by state President Charles Swart to form a government, which is expected to make its first appearance before Parliament Wednesday.

He holds the portfolios of justice, police and prisons, and as the nation's top policeman has sharply curtailed activities of about 500 left-wing and liberal critics under the suppression of communism laws.

Vorster was interned for nearly two years during World War II for pro-German sympathies and is often pictured in newspaper cartoons wearing Nazi-style jackboots.

School Spats Appear Ended

By The Associated Press

The apparent end of Michigan's last two teacher contract disputes in Dearborn and Traverse City, came Monday amid a growing atmosphere of distrust and confusion.

"Many questions remain to be answered in the field of collective negotiations among public employees," said Gov. George Romney, indicating hope that his Special Commission on Public Employment might furnish answers.

The governor praised all agencies concerned by saying the disputes caused "relatively few disruptions to the normal education of our children."

By a 72-38 vote, members of Local 1650, Dearborn Federation of Teachers, AFL-CIO, voted to return to Henry Ford Community College Registration for 12,500 students at the state's largest junior college was to begin Wednesday with classes resuming Sept. 20.

At Traverse City, full time classes were scheduled to resume today. Classes have been on half days since school opened Sept. 6, with substitute teachers holding classes for 3,000 students.

Blixt Named Manager Here

Bryan Blixt

Bryan Blixt, 23, has taken over as operations manager of the Escanaba office of Management Science, 2201 Ludington St., replacing William DeNeve, 27, who has been advanced to operations manager in the company's general offices at Appleton, Wis.

Blixt, a graduate of Escanaba Area high school in 1961, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Blixt, Soo Hill. He is married to the former Pam Artley of Gladstone.

He joined Management Science, Inc., a year ago and completed a training program as a computer operator in Appleton. The consulting engineering firm opened an office in Escanaba last year and has expanded its office force to 15. Appointment of Blixt as manager was effective Sept. 1.

Hospital

Mrs. Bertha Winkler, Wells, will be a patient at University Hospital, Ann Arbor, Mich., for another four to six weeks. Her room is 9-305.

Homemakers hold Officer's Tea In Stephenson

The Officer's Tea of the Menominee County Extension Homemakers Council was held Tuesday afternoon in the Community Room of the Bank of Stephenson with about seventy in attendance. Eighteen of the twenty groups in the county were represented at the tea and training session. The Longie and Stephenson groups were in charge of arrangements for the tea.

Officers of the county units convened in their separate group sessions and received material for the year. Presiding at the session for unit chairmen was Mrs. Wayne Hooker, Wilson 47 Extension Home Study Club, and chairman of the Menominee County Council. Mrs. Harry Johnson, Bay Shore group, Menominee, instructed the vice-chairmen. Past secretary, Mrs. Victor Gerue, Ingalls, Ingalls, worked with the unit secretaries and Mrs. Edmund Sager, Longie group, Stephenson, chaired the treasurer's session.

Officers were elected at the June Council meeting and began the year's program at the September meeting. Serving with chairman, Mrs. Wayne Hooker and vice-chairman, Mrs. Harry Johnson are: Secretary and program of work chairman, Mrs. Harold Peterson, Evergreen group, Menominee; treasurer, Mrs. Delmar Gay, Longie group, Stephenson.

The regular council meeting followed the training session. Miss Ingrid Tervonen, Extension Home Economist, Escanaba, was present and lesson plans were made for the year. The first lesson "Safe Food Handling and Preserving Food" will be given by Miss Tervonen Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 21. On Oct. 3, Dr. Mary Jacobson, Lansing, Extension Specialist in Family Life, will give a lesson on "Values". The Christmas Workshop will be held Oct. 27. All lessons will be held in the Community Room of the Bank of Stephenson.

County Line Club

The County Line Extension Club held its first meeting of the season on Sept. 8 at the Community Building. The following officers were elected for the new year: Chairman, Mrs. Albert Whybrew; Vice-chairman, Mrs. John Hill; Secretary-Treasurer, Mrs. Elsie Sahn; Reporter, Mrs. Andrew Hytinen. Miss Johnson and Elsie Sahn will attend the Officers' Tea Sept. 14 in Escanaba. The next regular meeting will be held Oct. 3 at the Community Building.

Big Bay de Noc School District Millage Passed

GARDEN—Voters who created the Big Bay de Noc school district with a "Yes" vote on a reorganization proposal two months ago gave the district money to operate with Tuesday.

In a crucial election because of state aid implications, voters of Fairbanks, Cooks, Garden and Nahma overwhelmingly approved a proposal asking five mills for two years to operate the district, $96 to 71. The "Yes" vote brought the local levied millage over the 10 mill minimum required to qualify for full state aid.

Voters also selected a seven-member Board of Education and the vote on millage assured the Board of funds to operate the district.

Chosen to the Board of Education of the new district were Mrs. Opal Gearhart, Nahma (one-year term); Alvin A.

Pomeroy, Nahma, and Carl VanRemortel, Fairbanks (two-year terms); John Hartman, Cooks, and Charles Rasmussen, Garden (three-year terms); and Pete Thelander, Cooks, and Dale Carley, Garden (four-year terms).

The composition of the new Board is balanced with two representatives from Cooks, Garden and Nahma and the seventh from Fairbanks.

First meeting of the Board of Education was tentatively set for Friday night at the Garden School.

In two other proposals on the ballot, voters approved the school district operating buses for children, 436 to 26, and voted $56 to 100 in favor of salaries for Board of Education members. Board trustees will be paid $96 per year, the treasurer $250 per year and the secretary $500.

Key Club Helps Blood Program

The Key Club of Holy Name High School will start the ball rolling for the September Red Cross Bloodmobile visit when it sets out to canvass a 41 block area of Escanaba for blood donors this week.

The area to be covered is from 3rd Ave. S., to 12th Ave. S. and 14th to 19th St. The club members will be asking each resident who is able to make an appointment to give a unit of blood when the bloodmobile is in Escanaba on Sept. 21 and 22 at Teamsters Hall. They will also ask if the donor would like to be a regular donor and how many times he would care to donate a year—from one to five times.

Because of the Blood Bank program, blood is available free to all residents of Delta County whenever and wherever they need it.

The Key Club is the junior affiliate of the Escanaba Kiwanis Club, an organization within the school, but operating to benefit the community with emphasis on social action.

Delta County will be attempting to make up a deficit of 91 units of blood incurred at the July bloodmobile visit, plus the quota of 307 units, a total of 398 units of blood.

"September is a month of renewed dedication to social action after a period of relaxed indifference," said Mrs. Edward Olsen, blood donor chairman. "We're expecting the enthusiasm of these youths to stimulate a great deal of action."

St. Patrick's Guild held their first meeting of the new term, Monday night.

Mrs. Harold Bruce, new president, announced the committee chairmen for the year: publicity, Mrs. Art Walker; Bishop's Clothing Drive, Mrs. Lee McMillan; May Prayer Day, Mrs. James Dognan; Bishop Baraga Cause, Mrs. Herbert Berry; and Trading Stamp Certificate, Mrs. Al Balenger.

Preliminary plans were made to sponsor a bake sale, Oct. 9 in the Parish hall. Mrs. George Chandroff would be chairman assisted by Mrs. Earl Smith, co-chairman.

St. Ann's Circle was in charge of the social and St. Elizabeth Circle will be in charge of October's social.

The retiring president was presented a gift from the guild. The next meeting will be held Oct. 3.

2 U.P. Women Join Job Corps

Evalyn Mohn of Gwinn and Patricia Hamer of Calumet are the first two girls from the Upper Peninsula to be accepted for training in the Women's Job Corps. They left this week for the Charleston, W. Va. Center.

Their applications were processed and they were screened in Marquette through WICS (Women in Community Service). WICS is an organization representing four national women's groups: Catholic Council of Women, National Council of Jewish Women, National Council of Negro Women, and United Church Women.

Miss Mohn and Mrs. Hamer took their Job Corps oaths in Marquette this week in the presence of Marquette County Probate Judge Michael F. DeFant and Mrs. Joseph Bickler, WICS screening director for the U.P.

Mrs. Bickler said that any young women 16 through 21 years old, out of school (high school dropout or high school graduate), and unable to find adequate employment may apply for admission to the program. Those in the U.P. area may apply through the WICS office in Marquette.

Girls enrolled in the Job Corps program receive basic education, occupational training, and work experience. The program for women also includes training in home and family responsibilities and the development of values, attitudes and skills contributing to a stable family.

In Marquette, active local WICS volunteers assisting Mrs. Bickler are: Mrs. John R. Liberty, a registered nurse, Mrs. William Dolan, and Mrs. William Carlson.

Wilson

Mrs. John J. Kleiman was elected chairman of the Wilson 47 Extension Home Study Club at the meeting held Tuesday evening at her home in Wilson. Elected to serve with her during the ensuing year were Vice-Chairman, and Council member, Mrs. Wayne Hooker; Secretary, Mrs. Clem Ouradnik; Project Leaders, Mrs. Clarence Ray and Mrs. Richard Hendra. Meetings will be held the last Monday of the month and the next meeting will be held on Monday, Sept. 26 at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Kane, Escanaba. Lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Kleiman.

Highway Taxes Are Deficient

The immediate needs for city, county, and state highway improvements was told to the Kiwanians at their Monday meeting by Harold J. Vanierbergh.

Vanierbergh, who is traffic manager for Escanaba Division of Mead Corp., is also coordinator for the Good Roads Federation for Delta County. He was assisted in his presentation by Roger Murray, State Highway Department engineer, who acts as back-up man for the Good Roads Federation.

League Will Host President Here Sept. 22

The Escanaba League of Women Voters will host Mrs. Robert Forch, Dearborn, president of the League of Women Voters of Michigan, in League of Women Voters Week in Michigan, Sept. 19-23. She will be in Escanaba Sept. 22-23.

Mrs. Forch's visit will be one of the highlights of League of Women Voters Week. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Robert Rotman, Dearborn, a director of the State League, and Mrs. Gordon Eadie, Newberry, state League treasurer.

The Escanaba League will hold a public meeting at the John Lemmer School on Thursday evening, Sept. 22 at 8 and Mrs. Forch will speak on "Just What Is the League of Women Voters?" All are invited.

Woodard Named FHA Official

George Ruby, Delta County supervisor for Farmers Home Administration, announces appointment of Harold Woodard of Cornell as a county committeeman for the Delta-Schoolcraft Farmers Home Administration County Committee.

Woodard will be replacing Lawrence Mayrand, who has retired after serving a three-year term. The other members are James Collins, Fayette, and Wallace J. LaTulip, Garden.

Share Theater

CHICAGO (AP) — Chicago and San Francisco are to share the residency of the American Conservatory Theater. Each city raised $125,000 to back the theater group.

Antiques Head Auction Items

The first two days of the Escanaba Antiques Auction will feature a special selection for antique hunters Saturday and Sunday at the Exhibition building of the U. P. State Fairgrounds.

Chas. Vanierbergh, Escanaba, announced that the auction will feature a wide variety of antique items, including furniture, glassware, and other collectibles. The auction will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on both days.

The sale will begin both days at 1 p.m. with Col. George Lockard as auctioneer. First two days of the sale last week-end were successful, the club reported.

Exchange Club's share of the proceeds will go to finance operation of the club's dental clinic for underprivileged children of Delta County and also to the J. F. Kennedy school for retarded children. The Retarded Children's Association is assisting in the sale and operating a concession stand at the Exhibition building.

Planning Our College

The current interest in urban renewal in Escanaba inevitably raises questions about Bay de Noc Community College.

The college was started four years ago in the old Escanaba High School Building. It was available — not ideal, but useable — and the community needed a college and didn't have the means to build a campus in a hurry from scratch. So the old high school building, which had been vacated by the move to the new Escanaba Area High School, was remodeled and put to use.

The building was converted to college usage at a cost to date of $258,000 of which $101,062 has been from Catherine Bonifas funds bequeathed to the college, and the rest from state matching funds and local tax funds.

The college has grown in four years from an enrollment of 268 students to an enrollment of 580 and both professional educators and the lay community expect it to keep right on growing and to expand its usefulness both in the preparation of young people for continuing education and in the preparation of everyone for the skills needed for modern living.

The college is financed from four sources in these percentages: federal 8.1, state 43.3, tuition by students 26.1 and local taxes (of one mill on real estate of the Delta County district) 22.5 per cent.

The prospects are:

1. That the college will outgrow its present building. It is already arranging to lease the Bonifas gymnasium for some of its activities.

2. That the college tax will increase as the demands upon the college for services increase.

3. That the college district will enlarge. The state has encouraged this view by assigning Delta, Schoolcraft and Menominee counties to a community college district centered in Delta.

Given this situation it requires no seventh son sense of foresight to see that there should be some long range planning for the future of Bay de Noc Community College. There has been some from the beginning. The college currently retains the firm of Davenport Associates, Inc., to help it with planning.

But there is a natural and proper caution on the part of the College Board of Trustees, we expect, which keeps them from moving boldly in long range planning. The college is so new that the board doesn't want to appear to be planning to make it a competitor of Northern Michigan University. This is not its function. And haste could make the area apprehensive about the tax burden resulting from ambitious planning.

The college board has not moved in the direction of college housing so far. Alpena Community College has just received most of a million dollars from the federal government to start a dormitory program. There's no such thought at Bay de Noc.

Here's why. Bay students get room, breakfast and dinner in private homes here for $8 to $10 a week. They get a good full dinner at the college for 65 cents. So they're paying under $15 a week for room and board.

If the college were to provide it in a dormitory and dining hall situation it would cost $25 a week minimum.

When and if there are so many students that acceptable private housing can't be found for them, the college will probably build housing. This is more likely for a new campus development in the far future than it is for the immediate future.

These thoughts are all as speculative as the weather, but assuredly there will be weather of some kind and there will assuredly be a college of some kind and the area should be planning for it. Our Escanaba city planners would be remiss if they did not in the master plan for the City of Escanaba which they are developing make some expansive provisions for Bay de Noc Community College.

It already is one of the community's greatest assets. It is an indispensable part of our resources for development and in an area which plans its highway needs 10 years and more ahead we certainly should be dignifying education by giving it equal time.

The Doctor Says:

Warfarin Has Medical Use

By DR. WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT

Q—Do doctors ever give warfarin to human beings to dissolve blood clots? Isn't this a rat poison?

A—Warfarin will prevent clotting but will not dissolve clots. It is used as a rat poison but it has its legitimate uses in human medical treatment in carefully regulated doses. Anyone who is taking this, or any other anticoagulant, should have weekly checks of his blood-clotting time.

Q—Is it possible to perform a hysterectomy and leave part or all of the cervix in place? If so, what are the advantages?

A—When a partial hysterectomy is done, the advantages are less risk of damage to the bladder and rectum, less risk of infection of the abdominal cavity (peritonitis) and hence a lower death rate. With improved techniques, however, these considerations are no longer very important and most specially trained gynecologists prefer the complete removal of the uterus. With the latter operation there is less danger of prolapse of the uterine stump and less danger of subsequent cervical cancer.

Q—My doctor says I have atrophy of the cervix. Is this serious? What is the usual treatment?

A—With advancing age after the menopause there may be some shrinking of the entire uterus. This is a normal process and requires no treatment.

Q—What are the five classes of the Pap test for women? Are all five considered to be cancer?

A—Class I is considered benign with no abnormal cells; repeat in one year. Class II is benign with a few abnormal cells; repeat in 6 months. Class III is benign with many abnormal cells; repeat in one week. Class IV shows cells suggestive of cancer but not definitely so; a biopsy specimen should be taken. Class V shows cells that are definitely malignant; a biopsy specimen should be taken unless other findings confirm a diagnosis of cancer in which case the uterus should be removed without delay.

Q—My doctor is giving me Arlidin for my dizziness. I have been taking it for three months but no improvement. What are the pills for and are they harmful?

A—Nylidrin (Arlidin) is given to dilate the arteries in persons with hardening of the arteries. Reynaud's disease, Burger's disease, leg cramps and vascular complications of diabetes. It would not directly affect your dizziness but might improve the underlying cause. Nervous tension and palpitation of the heart may occur if the dose is too large.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Educational Service Changing

Mentally Retarded Helped

The retarded child used to be an object of family shame to be secluded in the attic or chained to the coal bin.

Times have changed. For one thing, the retarded child has a lot of distinguished relatives.

The family of the late President John F. Kennedy has made no secret of the fact that a sister of the late President is retarded. In fact, the family set up the Joseph P. Kennedy Jr. Foundation for the specific purpose of giving away money to help those who, like Rosemary Kennedy, were born with this affliction.

Mrs. Hubert H. Humphrey, wife of the vice president, has made no secret of the fact that her grandchild, Vicki Solomon, is similarly afflicted.

And Joey Giardello, former middleweight boxing champion of the world, needs no excuse to brag about whatever new achievements his retarded son accomplishes from time to time.

Retarded Can Be Helped

What these people have in common — the Kennedys, the Humphreys, the Giardellos, — and countless others whose names are less familiar — is an intimate relationship with retarded children in their own families, plus a conviction that the retarded can be, and should be, helped.

The biggest problem, according to a new booklet from a department of the National Education Association, is a desperate shortage of trained teachers to provide that help.

The booklet, "Shape of Education, 1966-67," quotes Lloyd Feldman of the U. S. Labor Department manpower office as saying that the nation has only about 20,000 teachers, some only partially prepared, teaching the mentally retarded. We need 55,000 more specially trained teachers, he says.

"The number of school-age pupils in public school special education classes for the mentally retarded," says Feldman, "increased by more than 75 per cent between 1953 and 1963. Despite this, only 27 per cent of the estimated 1.4 million retarded children of school age in 1963 had an opportunity to participate in special education classes."

Recent legislation (the Mental Retardation Facilities and Community Mental Health Center Construction Act of 1963 and the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965) has given added weight to earlier federal legislation offering assistance in this area.

Under vocational rehabilitation legislation, the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare has created centers for research and training of teachers for coping with mental retardation at universities in Oregon, Texas, Wisconsin and Pennsylvania.

Feldman asserts that something between 85-90 per cent of all retarded individuals can, with proper training and assistance, acquire job skills and lead productive lives. And that most of the others can be trained to be useful in sheltered workshops.

As it is now, the National Association for Retarded Children estimates taxpayers put out more than $500 million a year in support of schools and custodial institutions and related services for the mentally retarded — a sum which is at least matched by extra costs borne by their families.

And then there are the indirect costs — what the properly trained and educated mentally retarded persons could add to, instead of subtract from, the nation's economy. That figures at about $5 billion a year — which is about what it cost to run the entire federal government back in the early 1930's.

Black Racism Galls

By BRUCE BLOSSAT

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — Rumblings among responsible Negro leaders suggest that they regard Stokely Carmichael, the young black segregationist who heads the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, as the worst drawback to their cause in years.

In fiery utterances just within the past six weeks, Carmichael has: Threatened to "disrupt the whole country" if even one Negro is arrested by a white policeman on any charge whatsoever, called for the "burning down" of Washington if home rule is not quickly voted, exhorted Harlem Negroes to shout "Hell, no!" to federal efforts to draft or recruit substandard Negro youths for the army, declared that Negroes should take the law in their own hands if the slayer of one escapes prosecution.

Among the responsible in the Negro leadership, Carmichael is most often described as an "irresponsible juvenile" who really does "not understand what he is talking about." None thinks he can bring off any of the massive retaliations against the white community which he constantly threatens.

The distress in the real Negro establishment is nevertheless great. Leaders believe his inflammatory talk incites disturbances among frustrated elements which should be kept calm — and offered instead huge but sobering doses of aid in getting jobs, better housing and improved schools.

The responsible fear also that the young West Indian's clamor for "black power" is gravely distorting the nation's image of the Negro revolution — which they want to be tough, relentless, but constructive.

Leaders like Roy Wilkins of the NAACP, Whitney Young of the Urban League, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. and A. Philip Randolph believe white good will and co-operation are pivotal factors in any substantial upturning in the Negro's general fortunes.

Many see Carmichael's black racism as driving off the whites and tending to dry up vital sources of financial and other assistance.

What galls them most is that they do not believe he represents any constructive element in Negro society or that he and SNICK have any sort of program to offer.

One respected southern Negro activist says:

"Stokely has no following and no program... His attempt to glamorize the ghetto I don't understand. I don't understand him. We can't win the kind of (black power) battle he talks about."

This southerner contends that SNICK's once very active efforts at Negro voter registration have been largely abandoned, that there is no longer clear evidence it is doing useful work in any field.

Leaders disagree widely on the number of active SNICK people still in the fold, with estimates ranging from a high of 2,000 to less than 200 truly dependable workers.

Visits to ghettos in Washington persuade some Negroes that Carmichael is virtually unknown there. Polls indicate the same is true country-wide.

Yet, conversely, one experienced Negro observer sees him as to a great degree a creature of television. His provocative shouts have drawn the cameras in great clusters. Only Dr. King had more television exposure, though Carmichael's leadership dates from just this spring.

Blamed also by this source are, of course, the revolutionaries and, particularly at the neighborhood level, the silence, inaction and seeming timidity of responsible leaders.

The Family Lawyer

REWARDS

Edwards flew into a rage when he found the hub cap missing from his car. Shaking his fist, he sputtered:

"Why, I'd give $100 to know who stole those hub caps!"

The man next door, hearing these words, took them literally. He did a little quiet sleuthing, and, sure enough, discovered the culprit. But when he claimed a $100 reward, Edwards refused to pay off.

And in a court test, the judge sided with Edwards. His angry exclamation, said the judge, was obviously just a way of letting off steam, not a serious offer of a reward.

The legal obligation to pay a reward is based not on the ethics of gratitude but on the principles of contract law. There must be an offer, seriously meant. And there must also be a performance that fits the terms called for in the offer.

Thus, a reward offered for locating a robber "and" his loot is not earned by one who locates the robber—but not the loot.

Nevertheless, to encourage the catching of criminals, the law usually gives the claimant the benefit of the doubt.

For example: An alert citizen led police to the hideout of a fugitive killer. But their effort to arrest him resulted in a gun fight in which the fugitive was slain. In these circumstances, was the citizen entitled to a reward offered for the man's "arrest"?

A court said he was indeed, because—for all practical purposes—he had done the job for which the reward was offered.

Is everyone eligible for a reward that is offered to the general public? No. As a matter of public policy, certain individuals may be disqualified even if the reward offer doesn't say so.

For instance, a policeman who does no more than his duty cannot ordinarily claim a reward offered by the victim of a crime. Otherwise, the police might be tempted to give better service to people willing to offer rewards.

Nor may a reward be claimed by someone who was himself involved in the crime. Thus, a man who helped to find some stolen shoes was denied a reward, when it turned out that he had also helped to steal them.

As one judge put it: "No man shall be permitted to profit by his own iniquity."

Toasting got its name from the fact that bits of toast often were floated in a man's drink.

Ann Landers

Letter On Of Prospective Wife

Dear Ann Landers: I'm 18 and was engaged to be married in eight weeks. I said "yes" because I broke the engagement after I received a letter from a very close friend.

I am going to enclose my friend's letter and ask you to print it. It really opened my eyes. Maybe it will open some other eyes around the country.

"Dear ---:

"I know you won't take my advice but I feel I must tell you. Please please please think it over before you get married. I am exactly your age and it's been only ten months since I was a bride. But I can tell you, honey, we are both too young for marriage."

"We grew up together and I know how much fun and good times mean to you. I thought I could give up a lot of things because I was in love with Bill and I was sure that just being married would be a lot of fun—but I confess that the last four months haven't been any fun at all, just regrets."

"Before I married I remember what a blast it was to drive my dad's nice car. Bill and I have an old piece of junk that sits in front of the house because we don't have money for gas."

"Do you know what it's like not to be able to buy a new dress, or a bottle of nail polish or a can of hair spray? Well, I do. And something else, you'll never realize how many things your mother did for you until you have to do them yourself. I used to change blouses twice a day, but I don't do that any more since I'm the one who has to wash and iron them."

"I thought marriage meant freedom. Well, it might have meant freedom from my parents, but now I have to answer to a husband who is ten times more demanding than my parents ever were."

"Have I mentioned loneliness? Well, get ready: Bill goes to work at 8:30 a.m. and comes home at 7:30 p.m. Two nights a week he's in school and one night a week he bowls with the guys. If you think your single friends are going to keep you company forget it. After a few months you're just another old married woman."

"I am not trying to talk you out of anything, I just want you to know what you're getting into. I wish somebody had wised me up. If they had, I'd be single today. Think it over and good luck, no matter what. — DOTTIE"

Sundstrom Writes Of U.P. Voyage

Coasters Make 260 Miles In 3 Days

By LOWELL SUNDSTROM

The heavy gates closed slowly behind us. Discolored concrete walls loomed 40 feet above, leaving only a small strip of gray sky visible. A solitary gull was gliding overhead. The muffled hoot of a steamboat whistle sounded in the distance. We were more than 200 miles from home...

Only two days before we were starting out on a fast boat ride "around the horn," from Manistique to St. Ignace, to the Sault, to Lake Superior, and up the Tahquamenon River to Newberry.

It all started when my friend, Dick McClintchey, Nahma motel operator, talked to me about a trip in his 20 foot outboard. I told him of my 20-year dream of going to Newberry, my home town, by boat. "Well, let's go then," Mac said. So we set the date for right after Labor Day.

Off The Highway

It was a good chance, too, for me to call on my printing customers by boat. Many of them live on this waterway. Any salesmen covering the east end of the Upper Peninsula should try this combination business and pleasure trip. You certainly get away from the monotony of traveling by car.

The weather looked good on Sept. 7 and for several days ahead. So we hurriedly gathered our gear, and bright and early next morning we backed into the excellent ramp at the Manistique marina. It was a wonderful 75 degree day as we set course for Seul Choix Point.

Then we swung southeast and in a couple hours we rounded the point of Beaver Island and landed at the village of St. James. This island claims 150 permanent residents, 85 miles of roads and daily ferry service from Charlevoix. There are the necessary business places, many automobiles and, of course, motor bikes.

That afternoon we headed east to the Straits of Mackinac. The southwest wind was freshening, and the radio reported small craft warnings. It was too late to turn back, so Mac put on flank speed as we rode down the trough between five foot waves over some 35 miles of open sea. This course brought us south of some islands, forcing us to back track and seek a passage through the shoals.

Sun Over Mackinac

Our "passage" turned out to be six inches deep, so we got out and dragged the boat about 1,000 feet into the Straits of Mackinac. Then it was smooth sailing directly to the Mackinac Bridge where we shot some "fish eye views" pictures underneath the structure.

That night we tied up at the modern St. Ignace Marina, visited our customer at The Republican News, and ate dinner downtown. It was a summary, mild night so we decided to crawl in our sleeping bags and sleep aboard. The deck became quite hard about 2 a.m., and at 3 a.m. the Soo Line decided to switch freight cars for an hour. We will recommend that the railroad keep their car wheels greased so visitors can sleep.

As we tried out our canned heat stove next morning to cook breakfast, the sun blazed up gloriously over Mackinac Island. The summer rush was over and life stirred slowly on the picturesque island. But we had to leave, and Hessel was more than an hour's run. Here we encountered some of the finest waterways on the Great Lakes. There were literally hundreds of small fishing boats along the miles of waterways that wind through the Les-Cheneaux Islands. From there we hit the open water again as we set course for Drummond Island.

Up St. Mary's River

At the village of DeTour we swung into the St. Mary's River channel, filled with a heavy traffic of freighters. Soon we caught up with an ore carrier heading for the Soo, got on his beam wave, and actually rode downhill on a parallel course. We could see right in his engine room porthole, and held this position for more than an hour. It gave us a smooth ride, and perhaps saved on fuel. The river trip afforded plenty of good scenery, and about four o'clock that afternoon we pulled into Sault Ste. Marie, Mich. Here we found a number of fine waterfront motels, complete with docking and gas pump, and registered at St.

Lowell Sundstrom

Mary's motel. I called by brother, E. J. "Shine" Sundstrom, at The Evening News, and he and his wife invited us to the Elks for a fish fry. We were really roughing it. Next morning we checked with several customers, and gassed up for the trip into Lake Superior.

It was necessary to check out with the Coast Guard before going through the locks, and here we can offer a word of warning. Be sure to have your boat certificate, anchor, fire extinguisher, life preservers, and, above all, a horn or whistle. We had lost our horn enroute, and were forced to walk uptown and buy a referee's whistle before we were released. A horn or whistle is a "must" for foggy conditions, the Coast Guard informed us.

Gladstone Sets School Budget, Increase $50,155

GLADSTONE — The Gladstone Board of Education adopted a budget of $503,930 for the 1968-69 school year at the regular meeting Monday night at the James T. Jones school.

The figure represents an increase of $50,155 over last year's budget of $453,775, according to Wallace Cameron, superintendent.

Cameron said $395,730 will be received through state aid. He noted that salaries for the year will total $394,530, just $1,200 short of the amount received in state aid.

Enrollment figures show a gain of 78 students over last year with largest gain, 62 students, in the junior and senior high school. A loss of three students at the James T. Jones school was offset by a gain of 19 at the Buckley School.

Total enrollment for the district is 1,306, compared to 1,228 last year.

In other business, the Board approved payment of $45,700 for the new gymnasium, $23,000 to Noah Piquette Construction Co., Menominee, general contractors, and $22,700 to the heating contractor, Modern Heating and Plumbing.

A fee of $25 for private rental of the James T. Jones school multi-purpose room was established. Public meetings will continue to be scheduled without charge.

The Board also awarded Sears Roebuck Co. the contract for fencing at the Buckley school in the amount of $845. Work will begin immediately.

The Board authorized purchase of 150 to 200 seats for the auditorium. Cameron said that since it would be necessary to use the present gymnasium for study hall purposes at the earliest possible date, seating must be suitable for both study and auditorium purposes.

The certification code was reviewed and Cameron was authorized to work out details of transportation in the hot lunch program.

Finally we were assigned to Lock Three, along with a small local cruise boat. We found ourselves down in this concrete canyon as the gates closed behind us; but soon tons of water came swirling up, raising our boats about 30 feet in 20 minutes. We tried fishing in the lock, but failed to get a bite.

As we reached the level of Lake Superior, we churned west under the International Bridge toward Whitefish Bay. Again we took some interesting low level pictures of the bridge. An hour later we were in Whitefish Bay, skirting the shore to view the old light-house, Brimley, Mission Hill ski lodge and Tahquamenon Island. We found some rock shoals where we thought trout may lurk, and trolled with our eight horse auxiliary motor, to no avail.

Suddenly the sky darkened, and we rushed for the Tahquamenon River mouth to avoid the storm. All smart sailors know how fast the Great Lakes can change their countenance.

Sweden Next?

Saturday night we found a modern cabin up the river and rented it for the night. Our genial hosts, the Ed Nelsons, even offered us the use of their pick-up to drive to Paradise for supper. They wanted to give us breakfast too, but we explained we were in a hurry to leave early Sunday to visit our customers at The Newberry News.

And here we found the only disappointment of the entire trip. There were no boat ramps at either the Lower or Upper Tahquamenon Falls. There is a path for canoeists, that's all. So we gave up and loaded the boat on the trailer at the river mouth, where Mrs. McClintchey waited for us. She had awakened at six that morning to make the drive from Nahma.

We traveled more than 260 miles in three days in about 17 hours running time, using 125 gallons of gas. Mac says we should have continued up Lake Superior to Grand Marais and Munising. I told him I'd be willing to take the boat to Sweden. He said if I bought the gas, he'd be glad to take me.

Church School Sessions begin At St. Stephen's

St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, Escanaba, began its fall program on Sunday with the opening sessions of Church School. The Home Ec. Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Marian Cota Sept. 15 instead of at the home of Mrs. Mildred Haas. Miss Pam Casey of Milwaukee visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Casey.

Leslie Ranguette who is employed in Saginaw visited with his family in Fairport.

Orientation

HOUGHTON — Michigan Technological University's orientation week for new students will be held this year Sept. 18-24 to acquaint freshmen with the University.

Civil Rights Bill Burial In Sight

WASHINGTON (AP) — Violence in the streets and the administration's refusal to back down on open housing threaten to bury any chance that Congress will pass civil rights legislation this year.

The Senate resumes perfunctory debate on the House-passed bill today, preliminary to a test vote Wednesday when the measure may be laid to rest.

Although Sen. Philip A. Hart, D-Mich., the bill's sponsor, said "it just does not make good sense" to kill the bill because of racial demonstrations and riots, most of his colleagues blame such disturbances for the lack of enthusiasm for the measure.

President Johnson said Monday "we will do everything we can" to obtain passage of the bill, but conceded at a news conference "we have some problems in the Senate which appear quite serious."

Johnson said much depends on whether Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen will drop his opposition to the bill's controversial open housing provision.

"I am hopeful we can find some way to get this support," he said of Dirksen. Johnson said he had talked with the GOP leader, but did not say when or give details of their conversation.

Dirksen indicated in an interview the administration might have salvaged part of the legislation if it had abandoned the open housing section he contends is unconstitutional.

Kavanagh Plans Campaign Visit To Hermansville

LANSING — Chief Justice Thomas M. Kavanagh of the Michigan Supreme Court will visit Hermansville Friday morning in a two-day campaign tour through the western Upper Peninsula.

Kavanagh will campaign in six counties Friday and Saturday in his bid for reelection. Plans call for him to stop for mid-morning coffee at Hermansville.

He will begin his tour at Menominee with breakfast Friday, stop at Hermansville and then move to Iron Mountain for a luncheon. He will also make stops at Crystal Falls and Iron River Friday afternoon en route to Ironwood where he will be honored at dinner Friday night. Saturday, Kavanagh will lunch at Ontonagon and attend a dinner program at Houghton.

Escanaba Airman Tops Detachment

Dennis Coon, son of Mrs. James Coon and the late James Coon, 1022 10th Ave., S., has been chosen "Airman of the Month" for Detachment 1, 1962nd Communications Group, at Kadena Air Force Base.

According to Lt. Louis F. Daboll Jr., detachment commander, Coon was chosen because of his excellent job knowledge, military bearing and devotion to duty. He will be placed in competition for the 1962nd Communications Group "Airman of the Month" award.

Coon is a 1962 graduate of Escanaba Area High School and attended Michigan State University, East Lansing, and the University of New Mexico, Albuquerque, before enlisting in the Air Force.

Change Texts

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — New social studies textbooks in Kentucky public schools will place more emphasis on the role of Negroes in American history, a State Education Department official said.

Gary Williams Will Address Wednesday Meet

Gary Williams, son of G. Mennen Williams, former governor and Democratic nominee for the U. S. Senate in the Nov. 8 election, will address a kick-off meeting of Democratic campaign workers of Delta County at the Sherman Hotel at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday.

George St. Louis, Delta County Democratic chairman, said that the meeting had originally been scheduled for Democratic headquarters at 719 Ludington St., but that the size of the gathering led to decision to move it to the hotel. The meeting, he said, will organize campaign work.

Williams is campaigning for his father in this area today and Wednesday. Former Governor Williams is convalescing after surgery.

Toastmasters Host 'Impromptu' Night

The first meeting of the new season for the Bay de Noc Toastmasters Club was held last night at Marco's Restaurant at 8:30.

The meeting was impromptu. Assignments were drawn from a hat and the members participating were Bernard Hoefgen, invocation; Tom McDermott, toastmaster; John Stoll, table topics; William L. Miller, speaker one; Fred Fisher, speaker two; Sherwood Trotter, speaker three; and master evaluator, Don Seymour. Other members participating in the program were Harland Lippold and Art Brien.

Special guests were Rev. Theobald Hattrup, John Lamse, Sam Mills, and Bob Snow. The club invites interested men between the ages of 18 and 95 to contact one of the above members about joining.

Obituary

WILLIAM LEMAY

Funeral services for William Lemay were held yesterday at 9:30 a.m. in St. Francis Xavier Church in Spaulding with Rev. Walter Franzeck officiating. Burial will be in Spaulding Township Cemetery. Pallbearers were Wilfred Groundine Sr., George and John Bellmore, Clifford Morreau, Elmer Heltgren and Wallace Wells.

Rolvaag Fight Stirs Voters

By The Associated Press
Gov. Karl Rolvaag of Minnesota, denied endorsement for re-nomination by the state Democratic-Farmer-Labor convention, tries for a primary election vindication from the voters today.

In Massachusetts, Democrats settle a pair of hot contests over nominations for governor and senator. Eleven states are holding primaries in the year's busiest day for ballot boxes except for Nov. 8 when all 435 members of the House, 35 senators and 35 governors will be elected.

Other states conducting primaries are Arizona, Colorado, Maryland, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Utah, Vermont and Wisconsin.

Rolvaag's primary opponent, endorsed by the convention, is Lt. Gov. A. M. (Sandy) Keith, 37.

Defer Teachers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Stanley R. Tupper, R-Maine, has asked the Selective Service System to find a way to defer from the draft public school teachers in their early 20s.

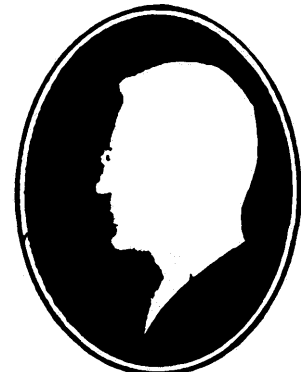

Tupper told Lt. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the Selective Service, that the action would help alleviate a severe shortage of teachers in Maine.

Dynatomic Is In Expansion

Plant and office facilities of Eaton Yale & Towne's Dynatomic Division in Kenosha, Wis., will be substantially enlarged by the end of 1966. F. L. Hoof, division general manager, estimated the overall added investment will exceed $1 million. Dynatomic Division is also expanding its Gladstone factory.

These added Kenosha facilities are the latest in a series of expansion moves. Last year and addition of substantial size was made. "By the end of this year, our third phase will be completed," said Hoof.

Construction is started on a $2,000-square-foot addition to the main plant which will house electronic assembly and testing operations. Space now occupied by these operations will be converted to machine shop use. A 9,600-square-foot addition to the present office building is also well along.

Extensive remodeling is nearly completed on a building across the street from the present plant and office. This building is the site of the original Dynatomic Corp. founded in 1951. Here 10,000 square feet—most recently used as warehouse space—is being converted into offices to house all the division's accounting operations and a second computer installation.

GLADSTONE

Rock 4-H Club Meets Wednesday

The Rock 4-H club will meet Wednesday, Sept. 14 at the Rock Lions clubhouse at 7 p.m. Fair ribbons and prize money will be paid out if reports are completed.

Plans will be discussed on a display for National 4-H Club week, Sept. 24-Oct. 1. Also plans on a rag-drive will be discussed.

Anyone who will be 10 years old by Oct. 1 may join at this time. Project work on personal improvement and possibly electrical and woodwork will be started in September.

Parents are invited to attend. For more information call Mrs. Albert Weldum.

City Housing Plans Progress

Plans for federal housing for the aged in Gladstone are progressing favorably, according to a report given the City Commission by Manager H. J. Henrikson Monday night.

Henrikson said he had met with engineers from Williams & Works, Inc., in Grand Rapids and was told that a program similar to that used in comparable cities was being planned and that results of this should be received within a week.

A meeting with the Federal Housing Commission in Chicago will be scheduled soon, Henrikson said. The plan would provide low-cost housing in an attractive structure for elderly people in the city.

Since only one bid was received for gasoline and fuel oil, the Commission extended the deadline for two weeks in hope that other bids would be received.

Hear Petition

Bids for sewage pumps and equipment were received from the Chicago Pump Co. in the amount of $2,003 and from J. R. Grants Association, Lake Mills, Wis. for $2,534 however the bid of the Chicago Pump Co. did not include electrical controls. Both bids will be submitted to Martin Caldwell, head of the department, and the city manager for analysis and recommendation.

After hearing a petition signed by several residents in the 1700 block of Michigan Ave., the Commission voted to prepare a base for blocktopping and to give the project priority. City crews will have the base prepared this fall. The action voided a previous action for concrete pavement in the block.

Letter Received

A letter from the Conservation Dept. regarding the submerged land in the Industrial Park was read. The city has filled land in that area and the Conservation Dept. notified the city it could receive a public use deed to the property if it were put to a public use such as a fishing pier.

Bids for the city fleet insurance will be opened at the next regular meeting, Oct. 10. The Commission also scheduled a meeting Wednesday with the committee in charge of the east end property sale to finalize pricing of lots.

A DANCE with a schoolmate may have launched Pia Dagermark on a film career. A picture of Pia taking a turn on the dance floor at a graduation party turned up in the newspapers because her partner happened to be Sweden's Crown Prince Carl Gustav. It was seen by, among others, Swedish director Bo Widerberg. He has signed the 17-year-old, who had never acted in her life, for the lead in a love tragedy ne's filming.

Rapid River Church Marks 78 years

Rapid River Congregational Church was founded 78 years ago with 46 charter members. Historical notes in the church's clerical records reads, "June 1888, the last week in June, Rev. J. Wood Miller of the Chicago Theological Seminary commenced labor here by preaching at the school house and occasionally at the Whitefish Point and Masonville, also by visiting from house to house. His labors were appreciated by many."

"Aug. 15, 1888, Rev. F.E. Carter of Gladstone, Mich. came and assisted in revival meetings for one week. They were continued for a 2nd week. Many who had formerly been church members were quickened and others converted. It was decided to organize a Congregational Church. Rev. J. Wood Miller and Rev. F. E. Carter issued letters calling a council to organize a new Church."

The council was held on Aug. 28, 1888. After the formalities, the church was declared in existence and the council adjourned.

Youth Groups To Meet Wednesday

RAPID RIVER—Youth Fellowship of Rapid River Congregational Church will hold its first meeting of the season, Wednesday, Sept. 14, 7:30 p. m. at the church parish hall. All young people of the church in grades 9-12 are invited to join the group. An election of officers will be held and a year's calendar of activities will be discussed. Plans will be made for an overnight retreat. Rev. Philip C. Meili, church pastor, is the adult advisor.

A new Junior High Youth Fellowship will begin this year at Rapid River Congregational. This group's activity will involve the seventh and eighth graders of the church. They will meet once a month on the third Sunday. The first meeting will be conducted Sunday, Sept. 18. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Denau will assist the pastor as adult advisors.

Crew Simulator

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Students at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology have a new device to fool around with—but this one is for the crew.

A crew simulator has been installed in the institute's Charles River boathouse. It contains a practice crew shell set in water which can be pumped past the boat house at various speeds.

Despite Help, Negro Unemployment Grows

By JOHN CUNIFF

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite the most intense campaign ever mounted to help the Negro worker, through education, training and law, the latest government figures show a paradox: Negro joblessness has risen.

So unusual is the turnaround after five years of steady improvement that the possibility of statistical error presents itself. Attesting to the accuracy of the figures, however, is the government's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The bureau says that in August, joblessness among non-whites—most of whom are Negroes—rose to 8.2 per cent of the number employable, more than twice the 3.4 per cent unemployment rate among whites. The high percentage, in itself, worries the administration even though nonwhite joblessness has been twice that of whites for years.

Of even greater concern to the administration is the apparent end of a five-year record of improvement. The unemployment rate for whites grew no worse. If the figures are not corrected or disproved, they carry

Rapid River

Luther League of Rapid River Calvary Lutheran Church met Wednesday at the parish hall with thirteen members present. Pastor George Olson presented the topic, "Is Anybody Out There?" The topic dealt with outer space and provided a lively discussion period.

Lynn Stenlund, League president, presided at the business meeting. Calvary's League will continue to meet the first and third Wednesdays of every month, 8 p. m. at the parish hall. Members include grades 8-12. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Christoff of Ensign are adult advisors for the group.

Following the meeting, recreation and a watermelon bust was enjoyed. The next meeting will be held Wednesday, Sept. 21.

potential meaning about the Negro racial revolt which specialists say have origins in ill-health, poverty, frustration and despair.

The increase in the Negro unemployment figures comes in a "full employment" economy, one in which the emphasis has been not so much on finding jobs as on finding workers.

Throughout the economy, Negro abilities are being upgraded through personal efforts and through training programs by government, unions, corporations and others.

The most immediate aim of the war on poverty is jobs through programs such as the Job Corps, the work-experience program and the adult basic education program. In addition, equal opportunity laws are being enforced. A few months ago it was believed that as the labor market tightened, the Negro would benefit more, proportionately, than the white. The theory was that as workers became more scarce employers would be less selective. They would accept unskilled workers and upgrade them to the requirements of the job.

As the figures show, the Negro apparently has not benefited, in this manner, to the degree expected.

Many theories will be offered. Perhaps it could be the inroads of automation or cost cutting. Or it could mean the elimination of service jobs through social change. It could be, of course, just a temporary, unexplainable statistical situation.

FREE OFFER!
Simmons Bed Stretcher Rails with Purchase of a Queen-size Beautyrest Set

This Free Offer Lets You Enjoy 20% More Sleeping Space

No need to buy new bedroom furniture to enjoy the stretch-out comfort of a Queen-size Beautyrest. Simmons bed stretcher rails solve that problem. And this month, they're yours free, with the purchase of a Queen-size Beautyrest mattress and boxspring. Then you're ready to enjoy your new Queen-size Beautyrest, 6 inches wider and 5 inches longer.

ALSO AVAILABLE: Long Boy twin or double size set, or a King-size Beautyrest.

This is your chance to sleep big . . . and save money, too. But hurry! The offer is for this month only.

Beautyrest is best for you, no matter what the size:

Coils in ordinary mattresses are wired together. Push one down and all the nearby coils are pulled down, too. Your spine sags into a valley. Your back can ache the next day. Two sleepers roll together, disturbing each other's sleep.

Beautyrest coils are not wired together. They're separate and independent. Push one down and it doesn't affect those nearby. Each coil supports its own section of the body. No sag. No valley. No rolling together. Only firm, body-fitting comfort.

Gwinn High School will boast the finest track and field facilities in the Upper Peninsula when the spring sport comes along next May. Workmen are in the process of putting the final touches on a $87,000 rubber aggregate quarter mile track adjacent to the new Gwinn school. It will be the first of its kind in the Peninsula.

The Upper Peninsula Racing Association has announced that all officials for the big season finale Sunday night, Sept. 18, will be from Milwaukee, including a well known flagman who is popular in Wisconsin racing circles. The time trials for the all-modified races will begin at 7 and the races at 8.

Marquette Central, the team that bombed Stephenson 55-0 in the season opener, rallied with two touchdowns in the final five and a half minutes of the game against Peshigo to win by a 19-0 margin. The teams were knotted, 6-6, before Paul Sharkey hit Rocky Shawinski with a 23 yard touchdown strike with 5:30 left. With 43 seconds remaining, Shawinski was back in punt formation but spotted a hole and scooted 73 yards for a clinching TD.

It was father and son in the Newberry Country Club men's golf tournament finals this year and youth was served as Paul Schaap defeated his dad, Earl, by a single stroke for the championship.

At last look, California's George Brunet was still high in the list of American League pitchers with a 3.15 earned run average. The Copper Country native has a record of 12 victories against 11 defeats and owns 135 strikeouts, 11th best in the league.

St. Ignace continued its long victory string with a 33-0 verdict over Canadian Soo with full back Ken Brown reeling off 191 yards in 17 carries. Coach Jerry Gallagher's gridgers piled up 463 yards rushing and 70 passing.

Halfback George Oikarinen of Calumet, the only Upper Peninsula runner to gain over 1,000 yards rushing last fall, rambled for 224 yards and scored three touchdowns as the Copper Kings whipped Maple, Wis., of the Michigan-Wisconsin Conference, 41-6. In two starts this season Coach Wayne Sickler's speed merchant has scored 43 points and gained 431 yards rushing.

Cazzie Inks Knicks Pact

NEW YORK (AP) — The New York Knicks, doormats of the National Basketball Association the past seven years, may have unlocked the door to the playoffs with the acquisition of Cazzie Russell, 1965's college basketball player of the year.

"We've now got a real good, young basketball team," said Eddie Donovan, general manager of the Knicks, who have not made the playoffs since 1959. "We don't expect Cazzie to tear up the league, but we have a lot of hope for him."

The Knicks announced Monday that the former Michigan star had come to terms. Neither the amount nor the length of the contract was disclosed, but it was reported that the 6-foot-5½, two-time All-America will receive more than $200,000 spread over a long-term contract.

Russell was scheduled to report to the Knicks' training camp at Cornwall-on-Hudson, N.Y., today. He hasn't signed, but a club spokesman said this was a mere formality.

"We will start him off in the guard position," said Donovan. "We're not looking for him to take us out of the doldrums single-handedly. But we've got a good nucleus now with Willis Reed, Walt Bellamy, Dave Stallworth, Howard Komives and Dick Van Arsdale."

The Knicks, who made Russell their No. 1 selection in the NBA draft, outbid the Harlem Globetrotters, who also were after the services of the 22-year-old Russell.

"I'm no comedian," the newest Knick said. "I was seriously considering playing for the Trotters, but I'm going to enjoy the brand of ball they play in the NBA, and I'm looking forward to playing against Oscar Robertson, Bill Russell and Sam Jones."

The nation's third-leading scorer with 800 points and a 30.8 average last season, Cazzie finished his three-year career at Michigan with 2,164 points, the highest total in Big Ten history and the 13th highest in history among major college scorers.

DeDe Bonifas Bowling Head

DeDe Bonifas was elected president of the Thursday Afternoon Housewives bowling league at a meeting at the Bowl-A-Rama.

Other officers elected were Annie Weber, vice president; Marg LeMire, secretary; Lu Zeno, treasurer; and Harriet Fitzharris, Sgt.-At-Arms.

The league will begin bowling Thursday, Sept. 22, at 2 p. m. and new teams are invited to join the league.

Redskins Win Season Opener

Hermansville opened the Big Seven fall baseball conference season with a 6-5 victory over Canby.

Doug LaCoursier, winning pitcher, scattered five hits, walked four and fanned eight. Randy Foché-ato poled a bases loaded triple and added a single while LaCoursier helped his own cause with two singles.

Backmaster started and Benson came on in the seventh for Canby. They gave up four hits, walked nine batters and whiffed six.

Crusaders, Braves Among 10 Unbeaten U.P. Teams

Holy Name and Gladstone are among 10 Upper Peninsula high school teams that are undefeated and untied following the second weekend of the 1966 football season.

New coach Tom O'Neil's Holy Name Crusaders will put their perfect record on the line in a home stand against the winless Stephenson Eagles Saturday afternoon at the Escanaba High School gridiron.

The Crusaders are off to a flying start with victories over Great Northern Conference foes Iron Mountain and Kingsford. Stephenson is also a Great Northern opponent. The Eagles, coached this year by John LaPointe, have bowed to Marinette Catholic Central and Gwinn.

Gladstone's 2-0 record was fashioned with victories over Gwinn and Newberry. Coach

Don Pfothauer's Braves face another stiff test Friday night when they travel to Ishpeming in a Great Lakes Conference battle. The Hematites are 1-1 after whipping Manistique and bowing to Negaunee.

At least one team will be pared from the select list this weekend when St. Ignace meets Soo Loretto. Both have 2-0 marks. The rest of the unbeaten, untied teams face foes that have tasted defeat at least once.

Coach Bill Earl's Manistique Mustangs invade winless Manistique Friday night in a GLC clash. Negaunee and Marquette tangle in a renewal of an ancient rivalry.

Other teams putting their perfect marks on the line are L'Anse against Gwinn, Ironwood against Superior Cathedral, Calumet against Houghton and Engadine against the Soo JV team.

BART STARR, Green Bay Packer quarterback, was unable to find a receiver on this play against the Baltimore Colts Saturday and takes off on the ground. Moving in from behind is Baltimore's Orrell Brasse (81). The Packers will be shooting for their second straight NFL victory Sunday afternoon at Cleveland. (AP Wirephoto)

Raye Is Hurt In Scrimmage

EAST LANSING (AP)—Michigan State will find out today how the last play of its last scrimmage of the season—two days ago—came out.

The play was a point after touchdown try. The kick was blocked. No. 1 quarterback Jimmy Raye, who was holding the ball, suffered a foot injury.

Raye will try to run on the injured foot Tuesday, and coach Duffy Daugherty said he will decide Wednesday whether Raye will play in MSU's season opener against North Carolina State here Saturday.

If Raye is out, Daugherty will turn to Charlie Wedemeyer or Bill Ferao, both sophomores.

"It shouldn't have happened," Daugherty said of the freak injury play.

It was a bad ending to a scrimmage in which the Spartans showed no sharpness or crispness, Daugherty said.

But, he added, lethargic play is almost typical of the final scrimmage of fall practice.

Despite some of the slumps, the offense moved the ball well, he said.

Kemp's Arm Is Coming Along; Wilson Kicking

NEW YORK (AP) — Jack Kemp, the Buffalo Bills' sore-armed quarterback, admits he's been throwing with pain, but he isn't about to start worrying about becoming the Sandy Koufax of the American Football League.

"There's pain," Kemp said, "and I don't have any z.p. But it's coming along, and I'm really not worried. The only thing that worries me is that I haven't had as much game time as I need. But it's getting better. I've given up babying it and I'm encouraged."

Kemp's sore arm stems from some exercises he did the first week of training camp. The soreness has lingered longer than doctors expected but there is no risk of Kemp damaging the arm further if he plays — so he's been playing.

He has, however, been ineffective, completing only six of 21 passes last Sunday as the Bills lost to Kansas City 42-20 and dropped into the Eastern Division cellar with a 0-2 record in defense of their AFL title.

But Kemp's receivers also have been at fault, and Coach Joe Collier plans at least one change for this week's game against Miami, starting Arkansas rookie Bobby Crockett at split end in place of Glenn Bass.

Well, Now Dept.: John Hadl, San Diego's quarterback, gained 30 yards rushing against Boston, more than last year's record-breaking Paul Lowe, who also happens to be Hadl's teammate.

But then the top three rushers from last year are all doing poorly. Lowe has rushed for only 57 yards in 25 tries. Clem Daniels of Oakland has picked up just 21 in 23 carries and Denver's Cookie Gilchrist is AWP — Absent With Permission.

George Wilson Jr., son of the Miami coach, set a league record by booting 10 points for 483 yards in the Dolphins' game against New York. Boston and San Diego also set one in the punting department by booting 20 between them. Mike Garrett, the Heisman Trophy winner from Southern California, returned a punt 79 yards for a touchdown for Kansas City and is the only AFL player among the leaders in both punt and kickoff returns. Bert Coan's 101 yards gained on the ground for the Chiefs against Buffalo was the first 100-yard rushing day for anyone this season.

Leading Milwaukee Drivers Race Here

The leading stock car drivers from the Milwaukee area will be tooling their modified racers for big money purses at the U. P. State Fair track Sunday night.

Officials of the Upper Peninsula Racing Association, promoter of the event, today announced a list of some of the top Milwaukee drivers who will appear here.

The list includes Miles (Mouse) Melius, Bill (The Cat) Johnson, Bill Goeden, Don Schuppel, Pedro Roehl, Etchie (Flying Grandpa) Bietzer, Fuzzy Fassbender, Greg Krieger, Neil Sederberg, John Reimer and Carl Schultz.

The racing program, first of its kind here, will also feature top modified drivers from the Escanaba area and Canadian Soo. Time trials will begin at 7, the races at 8.

In case of rain Sunday night, the races will be postponed for one week to Sept. 25.

Clay Agrees To Title Bout

HOUSTON (AP) — Cassius Clay, the 24-year-old unbeaten heavyweight champion, and Williams are expected to appear in the Astrodome within the week, armed with ink pens instead of boxing gloves.

Promoter Earl Gilliam of Texas Boxing Enterprises confirmed they will sign it in the Astrodome "within a few days," adding that although the commission has not yet approved the match, he feels sure it will.

Steelers Face Toughest Test

Generally called the world heavyweight champion, even though he is ranked only the No. 1 challenger by the World Boxing Association, Clay successfully defended his title last Saturday by defeating European champion Karl Mildenberger on a technical knockout in the 12th round at Frankfurt, Germany.

In his most recent fight, Williams stopped former Texas heavyweight champion Tod Herring last June. It was Williams' fourth straight comeback victory.

Williams was ranked No. 2 in the world, Gilliam said, before he was wounded in an altercation with a highway patrolman in 1964. He currently is listed among the top 10 fighters.

The Detroit-Pittsburgh game will also present a matchup of young fullbacks, Steeler rookie Bill Ashbury and the Lions' Tom Nowatske, a second-year man who was used sparingly in 1965. Ashbury gained 83 yards against the Giants, and Nowatske picked up 84 against the Bears. Each scored a touchdown.

Dearborn Wins Baseball Title

BATTLE CREEK (AP)—Joe Gurney and Bill Hyde combined to pitch a four-hit shutout as Dearborn, Mich., blanked Evansville, Ind., 10-0, Monday night for the east central regional title of the American Amateur Baseball Congress tourney.

Mike Yuskowatz slammed a three-run homer to salt away undefeated Dearborn's fifth straight tourney win. Evansville reached the finals earlier Monday with a 4-2 victory over Canton, Ohio.

Both Dearborn and Evansville qualified for the Stan Musial World Series which opens Thursday in Battle Creek.

Other entries include Beloit, Wis.; Birmingham, Ala.; Waterloo, Iowa; Dallas, Texas; Waterbury, Conn.; and Seattle, Wash.

Plan Drive-In Alimony Window

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — Milwaukee County is considering opening a drive-in window for convenient payments of alimony.

"This might be an incentive for a man to make his payments current," said Francis X. McCormack, clerk of courts, Monday.

McCormack said the idea, to be studied by a county board committee, would "help a lot of people."

An alimony payer "wouldn't have to double park, jump out of his car, run into the courthouse and stand in line to make his payment," he said.

Seat Belt Saves GM Vesp As Car Lands In Ditch

DETROIT — (AP) — Chevrolet's general manager, E. M. (Pete) Estes, was delighted today that he practiced what he preached.

The General Motors vice president devoted much of his talk to 300 newsmen Monday to the value of seat belts and other automotive safety items.

Four hours later he escaped injury when his chauffeur drove a car spun sideways into a ditch after being involved in a three-car collision on a suburban Southfield expressway.

"That was proving the value of seat belts the hard way," he recalled last night at a dinner in connection with Chevrolet's national preview of its 1967 cars.

Estes, in summarizing the auto market at an early morning news conference Monday, said one of the most satisfying things about the industry's current safety emphasis was that people are making more use of them, especially seat belts.

"I sure am glad I had my seat belt fastened for I did not even bang a knee when I was jolted about as the car spun," he said. His safety-belt equipped driver also escaped injury in the crash on I-696 highway.

"I was reading some papers from the office and did not see a thing until I heard my driver say 'where did that guy come from' and then there was an impact," Estes said.

Southfield police said all three cars involved in the mishap were proceeding in the same direction on the divided highway. They said Estes' car brushed one of the other vehicles and spun into the left hand ditch. No one was seriously injured.

"I am a great believer in seat belts but I did not intend to go quite that far in proving their safety," Estes said laughingly at Chevrolet's dinner.

Quake Shakes California And Nevada Areas

BERKELEY, Calif. (AP) — An earthquake shook a wide area of California and Nevada Monday.

Stockton, in the central valley, reported three quick jolts starting at 9:41 a.m. South Lake Tahoe, near the Nevada border and Reno both reported sharp tremors.

In the San Francisco Bay area, it was felt mildly. "The house shook from side to side," one Reno housewife said.

The rolling shock lasted an estimated 10 to 20 seconds in Reno.

"This building was really weaving around," said Sue Morrow, a staff writer for the Tahoe Daily Tribune at south Lake Tahoe.

A Reno police dispatcher said there were a couple reports of pieces of tile shaken loose from buildings.

Several Reno housewives said the rolling shock was strong enough to rattle dishes.

In Carson City, Nev., plaster fell from the assembly chambers in the State House as the building was shaken.

The State House in Sacramento rattled briefly and employees took shelter under arches and in doorways.

Mrs. Clara Potvin visited with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Deloria of Escanaba.

Mrs. Alfred Swanson have returned to Flint after spending several weeks in their home at Sac Bay.

Mrs. Alice LaBelle returned to Flint after spending the summer in the Garden area.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Dalgord and children of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hardy and children of Green Bay spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dalgord.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd St. Ours returned to Marquette after visiting Mr. and Mrs. John St. Curs and Mrs. John Lang.

Rapid River To Create Group To Aid Its Schools

Organization of a citizens committee to work with the board of education on Rapid River's school problems was agreed at a public meeting of the board at the Rapid River elementary school Monday night.

Stanley Dominic of Rapid River was named chairman of the committee, which is still to be named by Dominic and the board, which is headed by Waldon Johnson, who presided at last night's meeting. It was attended by a hundred persons and lasted until 11 o'clock.

The meeting followed action of the Bureau of School Services of the University of Michigan removing Rapid River High School from its accredited list following an inspection of the school by George Mills of the Bureau. School officials appeared before an appeals board of the Bureau in Ann Arbor but it denied re-accreditation while saying that it would work with the school district to end its deficiencies.

Merger Rejected
Mills addressed last night's meeting and in an action probably unique in Michigan school history read the letters on the condition of the school sent to

Judges Block Bus Integration For Lansing Pupils

LANSING (AP) — A panel of Ingham County Circuit judges ruled Monday that tenth graders must be admitted to the schools closest to their homes if that is their choice.

"In light of the serious constitutional questions involved," the three judges said. "It appears desirable that the status quo be maintained" until a parents' group's challenge to a controversial busing plan is settled in court.

The busing plan, adopted Aug. 4, involved 177 10th graders, who were to be enrolled in schools other than those they would normally have attended.

The intention, the Lansing Board of Education said, was to eliminate de facto segregation. The plan was to be expanded in the next few years.

Judges Sam Street Hughes, Marvin Salmon and Louis Coash continued a temporary restraining order they issued last week blocking the plan. It will remain in effect until the case is heard on its merits.

The judges ordered that "any pupil who did not voluntarily go to the school prescribed be admitted forthwith to school as if the Aug. 4, 1966 (busing plan) had not been evolved."

They ordered further that any "parents or guardians who objected to the transfer but whose pupils were enrolled (under the busing plan) may, by filing written notice with the principal on or before Aug. 15, have the pupil transferred" to the school he normally would attend.

Aim To Immunize 125,000 Children Against Measles

DETROIT (AP) — A three-county campaign to immunize 125,000 youngsters against measles will be undertaken Oct. 23 in southeastern Michigan.

Deputy health director Dr. C.P. Anderson of Detroit said the program was approved by medical societies in the Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties. Anderson said the program, costing $200,000, is expected to reach about half of the 250,000 children in the tri-county area who have not had vaccinations or become immune by contracting the disease.

Explosion Kills Angola Workers

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — An explosion in a fish canning plant killed 7 workers and injured 26, near Lobos, Portuguese Angola, the semi-official Lusitania news agency reported today. The accident occurred Monday.

the board of education. The act of accreditation, he said, was not what was needed. Rather it is the kind of good schooling which the district can provide for its children. Given this, accreditation would follow automatically.

One proposed solution to Rapid River's school problems had been merger with the Gladstone School District. A person at last night's meeting asked why this proposal had been rejected by the voters in the June election and a citizen volunteered "Because Gladstone didn't want us!"

The Rapid River District embraces the townships of Masonville, Bay de Noc and Ensign and it has a state equalized tax valuation behind each school child of $11,500, which was described as almost half again as much as the figure for the Gladstone District.

Last year Rapid River spent $522 per child to educate its school children, said Mills. While spending money doesn't necessarily mean good education, he suggested, it does help. The district has a good tax base, with $11,500 per child in valuation, but it has been keeping only 10 mills for operations of its schools while the average in Michigan is $440 per child, so Rapid River's spending would put it in the bottom 10th of the state's schools, said Mills.

Low Position
"I'm not certain," he said today "that the community is aware that their effort has put them in a very low competitive position. So the effort has got to be—and I think the people are willing to improve the system. They are agreed to do things that they can do yet this year—even if it means deficit financing."

"The people have agreed to ask the board to make up its mind about what is needed by the schools and to ask the community for it."

Mills found in his inspection that the schools were badly overcrowded, with up to 48 students served by one teacher, that some instructional materials were out of date and should be replaced; that the school system needed more classrooms and that meant that it needed more teachers, too.

The atmosphere of the assemblage appeared to be one of displeasure when it assembled, but it changed in the course of the presentation of the Bureau of School Services' appraisal of its schools' quality. And it ended with a vigorous resolution to give citizen backing to the board of education in a crash program to meet the recommendations of the accrediting agency for smaller classes, better materials, counseling and other items on the list of needs.

Council Lists Light Agenda

The City Council will have only four items on the agenda to consider at its regular meeting in the City Hall at 8 p.m. Thursday.

The council will open bids for 4,500 copies of the annual report and for 100 tons of rock salt for ice control purposes this winter, conduct a public hearing on Ordinance 474 which would vacate S. 18th St. from 22nd to 23rd Ave., S., and hear a request from Leslie Lark for transfer of ownership of a 1966 Class C licensed business, 123 N. 10th St., from Marshall R. Perrin.

Hunt Pressed For Escapees

SAGINAW (AP) — Police continued their search today for the two remaining escapees from the Saginaw County jail. Three of the men have been recaptured.

Captured Monday night was Frank Wander, 25, of Bridgeport. State police arrested Wander when they found him walking along Baker Road at the 175 overpass, a few miles southeast of Saginaw.

Officers were on their way to the Wander home on Baker Road when they saw the fugitive. He gave no resistance, police said.

Wander had been in jail awaiting trial on a murder charge in the death of his step-father who was shot in the back and robbed in April.

Earlier Monday evening, Saginaw police reported capturing 18-year-old Terry Lee McHedler of Saginaw after a tip on his whereabouts.

Sunday night, Stewart Waugh, 20, of Saginaw, was apprehended at the home of his mother in Saginaw.

Patrol Protects Negro Children In Grenada, Miss.

GRENADA, Miss. (AP) — The highway patrol has been called to protect Negro children attending newly desegregated schools.

Patrolmen stepped into a virtual law enforcement void after a day in which white men, swinging ax handles and chains, attacked Negro children leaving the schools.

The 175 burly officers, in full riot dress, took over Monday night. They dispersed one hostile crowd early today. A white man who argued was slugged unconscious and carted off in an ambulance.

The crowd dispersed reluctantly, with cries of "Nigger lover!" and "I thought you were a good Mississippian!"

Several hundred whites, shouting defiance of both state and federal authority, held a furious session Monday night in the City Hall auditorium to demand that the patrol be withdrawn.

"If you get that state highway patrol out of here there won't be a nigger left in Grenada," cried one man.

Romney Appoints Two Women Aides

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney appointed two women Monday to serve as vice chairmen of his reelection campaign. They are Mrs. John Finegan of Birmingham and Dr. Mildred Hearty Smith, general elementary consultant for Flint Community Schools. Both will serve as assistants to Campaign Manager S. John Bynum.

Container Plant

HARRIETTA (AP) — Construction has begun on a $150,000 plastic containers manufacturing facility in this Westford County community west of Cadillac. President Larry Emmons of Emmons Inc., said Monday. He said the plant will employ 12 workers.

In Portage Marsh At Teal Opener

Ducks Ask: Where Are The Hunters?

The opening of the special teal hunt at noon Monday was most notable in big Portage Marsh for the lack of hunters, reports Joseph Vogt, Conservation Department game biologist in the Escanaba District.

All little Bay de Noc from Portage Point to Peninsula Point was open for the hunt, one of the 12 special areas in Michigan for the teal hunt for which the state issued 8,700 special permits. About 80 Delta County hunters got permits.

Conservation officers contacted 19 hunters in the Portage Marsh and found they had shot 48 teal, averaging 2.5 birds per hunter, which was better than last year's 2.3 average. The kill checked numbered 33 blue wing teal and 15 green wing teal and there were five limit bags of four teal each.

Vogt said that hunter compliance with the rules of the hunt was very good; that experienced hunters were out; that they knew ducks well and did not shoot at illegal species. There were many baldpate, mallards and other species in the marsh as well as a lot of teal.

Three of the teal shot had been banded in the marsh last summer by Vogt.

The opening afternoon was very warm and because of the lack of hunters in the marsh not many ducks were flying. More action is looked for in the weekend.

The special teal hunt ends Sept. 20.

The regular duck season opens Oct. 10 with a bag limit of 4 a day, including not more than two mallards, two canvasbacks and two woodducks. It runs for 45 days through Nov. 23. There will be a special bonus of two scaup or ringneck ducks a day on top of the bag limit of four in Big and Little Bays de Noc from Oct. 20 through Nov. 23.

The goose season opens on Oct. 1 and ends Nov. 30.

Vogt said that the word from the northern nesting grounds indicates a good fall flight of waterfowl and he reports that there has been a good hatch in local marshes.

China's Red Guards Resisted In Country

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China's Red Guards are meeting stiff resistance as they push the cultural revolution from Peking into the countryside, Japanese correspondents reported today.

They reported that a crowd of 300,000 battled the youthful guards at Kweilin in southern China when the reformers demanded the resignation of the city's mayor and that army troops were called in to restore order.

In another development, Peking's official New China News Agency indicated that Premier Chou En-lai has been removed from his post as vice chairman of the Chinese Communist party. However, he apparently retained the premiership.

The Japanese correspondents reported from Peking that the clash at Kweilin, a city some 250 miles northwest of Canton, was one of several in a number of cities involving the Red Guards and local peasants and laborers.

The clash at Kweilin was reported by the correspondent of Yomiuri Shimbun.

The Peking People's Daily said Monday the students have made "certain mistakes," but added "no matter what the pretext, fighting between the students and farmers and laborers must not be permitted."

The reports of violence indicated that official advice in the People's Daily urging the Red Guards to stop using force and asking others to accept the cultural revolution was not taking effect.

From Hong Kong came reports from travelers to Red China of mass suicides last month in Canton and Shanghai due to molestation by the Red Guards.

Plan Bogalusa March Tonight

BOGALUSA, La. (AP) — Negroes voted to defy a city ordinance and stage a protest march tonight.

The vote was taken Monday night at a meeting held by the Bogalusa Civic and Voters League to hear Negro pupils of the Bogalusa Junior High School complain of harassment by white pupils.

League President A. Z. Young told the approximately 200 Negroes: "When you get some money, don't spend it on wine, get a gun."

He said the league had declared war on the Ku Klux Klan and "someone is going to have to die."

The league has complained that the only purpose of banning night marches is to halt such demonstrations during the only time Negroes can take part in them because of their employment and other activities. A hearing on a suit attacking the ordinance will be held in U.S. District Court in New Orleans Oct. 5.

While the league meeting was being held, about 650 whites went before the Bogalusa School Board to protest federal orders integrating the schools.

Motor Fuel Tax Rise Expected

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Federal and state tax receipts from motor fuel usage nationwide in 1966 are expected to rise by as much as $400 million, delegates at the annual North American Gasoline Tax Conference were told Monday.

Dr. Arthur B. Hersherberger, senior vice president of the Atlantic Richfield Co., Philadelphia, said rising gasoline sales will be responsible for the tax gains.

For the first six months this year, he said, gasoline sales nationwide show an estimated increase of nearly 5 per cent over 1965, when 76 billion gallons were consumed and federal and state gasoline taxes amounted to $7.25 billion.
